

THE WORLD'S BEST-SELLING HOMES MAGAZINE

NOVEMBER 2010 £3.80

ELLE

21
YEARS STYLE
DESIGN

DECORATION

CASUAL COMFORT

made easy

20 simple steps to a cool yet cosy home

Why greige is winter's must-have shade

WINTER WARMERS
Snuggle up with our stylish seasonal survival kit

BEDROOM SPECIAL
17 beautiful new beds
Lovely linens for every budget
5 dreamy dressing tables

PICTURE PERFECT
6 smart ways to display your art

NOW

ELLE DECORATION'S design HOT LIST of the NEW, the CLASSIC and the COLLECTABLE

Edited by AMY BRADFORD

WORDS: HELEN BROWN | PICTURE: OBJECTIVE IMAGE

Need to know

As the methods by which we scent our homes become more sophisticated, so too does the attendant paraphernalia. The evidence? Fornasetti's new 'Profumi per la Casa' range, a multi-tasking marriage of the Milanese design company's eye-catching ceramics and an exquisite home fragrance created by renowned 'nose' Olivier Polge. Each vessel contains a gorgeously smoky blend (think cedarwood, thyme and lavender) in various forms – from candles to incense, a diffusing oil and perfumed rocks.

They're not cheap, but you'll love them long after the scent is used up.

'Profumi per la Casa' scented candles by Fornasetti, from £95 each, Selfridges (selfridges.com)